We sometimes tend to forget that there is also an Italian-Speaking part of Switzerland with its own traditions and folklore. However, it is too far away to travel there for one of our get-togethers so we must compromise.

Everyone complains of his memory

will talk to us about memory and why everyone complains about his or hers.

Anyone who has heard Dennis speaking before will certainly not miss the opportunity of an evening of witty entertainment from the President of the Federation of Anglo-Swiss Clubs.

Those who were present will remember him from when he so kindly chaired our inaugural meeting in January.
